Part I, Line 10, Grants and Allocations

Each of the following students participating in The Politics & Journalism Semester program received stipends (grants) of $3,000 to help with Washington living expenses. In a few cases, the students received less, withdrawing from the program a month or two early. The Center is aware of no relationship of any of the recipients to any person or corporation with an interest in the Center.

Part I, Line 20, Other changes in net assets or fund balances

Our "three endowment funds" (Helen Thomas, Alan Baron and Tony Payton) were invested in mutual funds until October 2008, when the shares were sold, at a significant loss after the stock market "crash," which resulted in the negative asset balance from the previous year.
